

The 75 Best Wedding Web Sites

From reception bargains to videos, here are 75 of the worthiest Web sites for wedding planning

There are more than 100 million Web sites in the world. While we can't claim to have checked out every single one (everyone needs to sleep sometime!), these 75 resources are stellar, whether you're looking for cha-cha lessons or a custom sugar cookie.

REGISTRY

69. Check Things Off

Choose your favorite kitchen and bathroom items—and manage the guest list, seating plan, and budget—at bedbathandbeyond.com.

70. Make It Easier

Instead of registering in a half-dozen shops, sign up at one: MyRegistry.com allows brides to select gifts from any store in the world with its oneregistry-fits-all function.

71. Give Back

At idofoundation.org, you can link to stores like Target and REI, which will donate a percentage of guests' gift purchases to your favorite charitable cause.

STATIONERY

72. Find the Words

At finestationary.com, order invitations (Crane & Co., Kate Spade) and get an etiquette specialist's help for free!

73. Nail the Goods

Choose from a wide variety of affordable, ready-to-order items or design your own at myjeanm.com.

74. Create a Stamp

Upload a graphic detail from your invitation to mountaincow.com you'll receive sheets of customized U.S. postal stamps to stick on your envelopes.

75. Cut Card Costs

Formal-invitations.com sells more than 100 invites for less than a dollar each. (Use their template to print cards.)
