

COLLEGE CO-STAR MAKES BACK TO SCHOOL PICKS

ANDREW CALDWELL CREATES THE ULTIMATE DORM LIST USING MYREGISTRY.COM

Fort Lee, NJ - Andrew Caldwell, who plays Carter in this summer's 'Superbad meets American Pie' comedy from MGM, College, has made his suggestions on dorm room must-haves using online global gift craze, MyRegistry.com. Despite the fact that neither Carter nor his College buddies are actually in college (yet), for one wild weekend they pose as campus freshman. So who better to decide how to survive this September than "incoming" freshman? MyRegistry.com gave Andrew the freedom to go anywhere and choose anything that Carter would desire this fall.

Andrew's first pick is an Invaders LED doormat that lights up tiny green aliens to ward off invaders. Sold by X-tremegeek.com, this could be the perfect signal of a hazing fraternity guy; not to mention it just looks cool. Next, is the Logitech Harmony Remote 1000 Advanced Universal Remote, which features a 3.5 inch color touch screen and the Air Hogs Zero Gravity Micro RC Car which can climb walls, both found at Amazon.com. For a break from strenuous studying, Brookstone offers a 10-in-1 game table that enables you to play foosball, hockey, pool, ping pong and more - all in one place. There is also wall art by DwellStudio in Traffic sold by DesignPublic.com, a decision-making paperweight from Uncommongoods.com and much more, viewable here.

MyRegistry.com's platform allows members to choose any product from any store, online or off, for literally any occasion. This enables back-to-school wish lists to hold more than the traditional twin comforter and laundry bag essentials. It is especially convenient for the student on a part-time budget trying to nudge at relatives for help, even allowing them to request a personalized Cash Gift Fund like a "Beer...I Mean Books Fund". Click here to see how a cash gift appears on a registry.

Launched in 2005, MyRegistry.com is the leading web service dedicated to streamlining the gift-giving process. MyRegistry.com has the ultimate online registry for weddings, birthdays, baby showers, housewarmings and all other gift giving occasions.

Andrew Caldwell can also be seen in supporting roles in Transformers and "Hannah Montana" and he will continue to use MyRegistry.com for his future milestones.
